> There is a very general lull now in army movements, extending to all our armies. Each side, after the bitter and arduous struggles of the past season, are striving to recuperate and rest during the hard winter months. They are so far exhausted as to be mable on the one side to follow up the blows which have been dealt so severely, and on the other to make any more effort to retrive the disasters of the summer.

The contest on the Mississippi up to Memphis has virtually ceased, having become only trifling outbreaks of guerrillas and others. From Memphis to Chattanooga similar trifling outbreaks occur, in the shape of forays. Grant is strengthening his position and extending his lines still further into the enemy's coun-

The Army of the Potomae is of course deing nothing, although the last achievement of any merit was performed by Gen. Averill, of that Army. His brilliant raid through the enemy's lines, destroying stores, cutting lines of communication and otherwise injuring the enemy, is not the least successful exploit of the kind. Gillmore is pounding away at Charleston, with, however, little chance of success; nor do we suppose that he anticipates it with the limited means at his compates it with the limited means at his command. Lost or Stolen.—The people of the United States recently deposited with sundry subagents of theirs the mere trifle of ten million dollars, military commutation money on ac-count of the conscription; which, when last heard of, was in the possession of one Edwin M. Stanton, a luminous military genius, gifted with remarkable suavity of manuer. The said little trifle of ten million, though so contemptible as to be scafcely worth an inquiry, being now missing and nowhere to be found, and con-cerning which nobody seems to know anything, cerning which nobody seems to know anything, is supposed to have been lost or stolen. Hence, simply to have their curiosity satisfied, the sum lost being too small to interest anybody, the people ask for information on the subject; and as a reward therefor, they offer a richly bound and elegantly illustrated work, to be published in twelve quarto volumes, of one thousand pages, and entitled Four Years of Abolition Rule; the first volume to contain the Lincoln jokes and ancedotes, the other eleven, the infamies of the whole concern, among which this little matter of ten millions Judge Caton, Supreme Judge from the will occupy but a very limited space. We have already notified many of the adcompelled to adopt a new scale of rates, to commence on the 1st of January, 1864.

We have inclosed a circular to our adver tisers generally. The rates will apply to all old patrons, as well as new ones. This change is imperatively demanded by our increased expense in producing the paper, and is reluctantly asked. When the greatly increased circulation of the Democrat is taken into account, the schedule rates do not make it more costly in proportion to publicity given than it has been heretofore.

If any of our old patrons do not feel inclined to adopt the new rates they will please inform us; and should we not, in a reasonable space of time, hear from them, we shall consider them as having assented to the changes. Horrible Affair-Soldiers Poisoned by Women--The guilty parties Arrest-

At a late hour last night we were put in possession of facts which form one of the most revolting crimes ever committed, and which adds another to the long list of tragedies which now startle the whole community, and before which society stands aghast and appalled. Within the past few weeks we have een called upon to chronicle two of the most inhuman and unprovoked murders that have hitherto darkened the fair fame of our city, of a human being by violence is a subject of horror; but when the death of one is caused by a slow but deadly poison, administered by a supposed friend, it is suf ficient to make the very blood run cold. The facts of this case, as related to us at a late hour last night, are as follows: Three soldiers, went to the house of Mrs. Long, at the corner pose of obtaining board. While there they were invited to drink, which they did, as the to-night. liquor was freely given to them. The following cases were erous efforts that are making to elevate the condition of the poor. In several of the eastern cities benevlent associations, whose powers and dutie's are prescribed by charter, have worked admirably. From a report of an association in New York, having chartered powers, it appears that in one year, frem October 1st, 1862, 7,583 families of 33,845 persons, were relieved by an expenditure of only $36, 670.28. Now the number of suffering poor in our city can hardly reach 5,000, and about $15,000 has already been raised in this city this winter and has been expended, and many several other gentlemen who have interested of the poor have not been reached, and it may themselves in the efforts that have been made never be known where the money that has in behalf of the poor, to call a meeting this been expended is gone. RUNAWAYS .- During the past few days several runaways have occurred, but we are glad to announce that none of them resulted fatally. On Monday evening a horse attached te a sleigh, going down Green street, took fright and ran down the street at a frightful rate. When at the intersection of Fourth street it came in contact with another sleigh, upsetting it and throwing the occupants into the street, one of whom, a young man, received a bad cut over the left eye. On the same evening four horses attached to an omnibus containing a number of young ladies, on their way to school, took fright and ran out Seventh street. A number of the young ladies, being frightened, attempted to jump from the 'bus, and in doing so three of them fell and were considerably bruised, though none of them are seriously injured.

Proclamation by the Governor.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, } FRANKFORT, KY., Jan. 4, 1864. The frequent outrages perpetrated in various parts of the State by lawless bands of maranders can, in a large degree, be traced to the active aid of rebel sympathizers in our midst, or their neglect to furnish to military commandants the information in their possession, which would lead to the defeat and capture of such marauders.

Sympathizers with the rebellion who, while enjoying protection from the Government, abuse the leniency extended to them by concealing the movements of rebel guerrillas, by giving them information, affording them shel-ter, supplying them with provisions and oth-erwise encouraging and fomenting private raids, are in criminal complicity with all the outrages perpetrated by the marauders whom they secretly countenance.

It is in the power of persons whose sympathis are with the rebellion to prevent guer-rila raids, almost invariably, by furnishing to military officers of the United States or State of Kentucky the information which expe-rience has proved them to be, as a general thing, possessed of.

If all would unite, as is their duty, in put ting down guerrillas, we would soon cease to be troubled with their aids. A neglect to afford all assistance and information which may afd in defeating the designs of maraud-ing parties can but be construed as a culpable and active assistance to our enemies.

I therefore request that the various military commandants in the State of Kentucky grocery, corner of Washington and Clay streets, or at Theobald Bentz's, corner of Market and Shelby streets, that the committee may assist them.

DEAD—Mrs. Latty, who was so seriously burned on Monday, by accidentally falling into the fire, died on Monday night, about twelve o'clock. She suffered intense agony until death came to her relief.

The new court-martial ordered by Msj. General Foster commenced its labors in this city yesterday. The officers composing this court martial were published in the Democrat of yesterday.

Fifty-four rebel prisoners in Nashville took the oath of allegiance on Monday last. Helmstreet's Inimitable Hair Restora-

It is not a dye, but restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance, impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustie, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford of themselves no dressing. Heimstreet's Inimitable Coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a luxuriant beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling cff, promotes its growth, prevents its falling cff, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold the both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by the most dependent of the commercial agents 'D. S. Baraes & Co., 202 Broadway, New York. Recollect the special boot and shoe sale at Messrs. S. G. Henry & Co.'s this morning (Wednesday). Mr. Hite Henry has some choice goods to effer to his customers at this sale.

Messrs. Green & Green, corner of Man and Fourth streets, are now manufac-turing shirts and underwear in much larger quantities than ever before. Their goods cannot fail to give satisfaction, as they are as carefully made as they could be in any family. Their prices are so little above the cost of the material that parties can save money as well as trouble by getting shirts and underwear made to order. They cut from measurement and warrant a fit. Shirts sent anywhere on express routes by express.

I beg leave to inform my old custom ers, acquaintances, and the trade generally, that I will continue the business at the old stand, No. 215, Fifth street, between Main and Market, (housekeepers' headquarter), where I will always keep on hand a large and well-assorted stock of tin, copper and sheet iron ware, plated and brittania ware, house-keepers hardware, French and English japanued, enameled and pressed ware, refrigerators and water coolers. The Bounty Bill Passes the Senate. Amendments to the Tariff Bill. Late News from Newbern, N. C.

XXXVIIIth Congress-First Session. WASHINGTON, January 12. SENATE.

Mr. Howe introduced a communication from the Governor of Wisconsin with a copy of a petition addressed to the Legislature of that State by Mr. Blair and others, asking indemnity for the United States for injuries to persons and property in their efforts for the enforcement of the conscription law. Mr. Fessenden reported back from the Fiance Committee the House bill extending bounty to veteran and other volunteers.

Mr. Lane, of Kansar, reported from the Military Committee the House bill extending bounties to veteran and other volunteers.

Mr. Lane, of Kansas, reported from the Military Committee the House bill for the paynent of officers and men actually employed in the department of Missouri.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill authorizing the appointment of a Second Assistant Secre-

The joint resolution continuing the bounies heretofore paid was passed without an mendment. Mr. Summer modified his amendment to the nrollment bill, providing that the Secretary of War shall apply the money received from substitutes and otherwise, to the single object f procuring substitutes.

Transmitting letters from the secretary to the commander-in-chief of the army and the Commissary General of prisoners. General Halleck says, I have no information that the volunteers from Karsas that ware bat the volunteers from Karsas that were sken as prisoners of war, have not been treat-d by the enemy any different than volunteers om any other State. He also states that the general in command of the department of which Kansas forms a part, knows of no distinction between Kansas and other prisoners. The Commissary General of prisoners says: There is nothing in the records of this office to show the manner in which the wounded and dead soldiers have been treated on the and dead soldiers have been treated on the battle-field by rebels; nor is there anything to show that Kansas volunteers have been put to death on being taken prisoners. Only fifty-eight enlisted men of Kansas regiments can be found on the record as having been delivered on parole by the enemy.

Mr. Fessenden reported back from the Committee on Finance, without amendment the mittee on Finance, without amendment, the House bill continuing bounties to volunteers to March 1st, 1864. In connection with the subject he presented a letter from the Secre-tary of the Treasury, stating his inability to m et the heavy draft required by the bill in uch a short space of time, and recommend ing increased taxation.

Mr. Fessenden said that as the Committee of Ways and Means in the House would consider favorably the recommendation of the Secretary, he hoped the Senate would concur with the House in extending the time to 1st The bill was passed.

The enrollment bill was then considered and various amendments discussed.

At the instance of Mr. Wilson, Mr. Sumner madified his amendment reducing the per content of the per conte entage on income. The smendment of Mr. Sumner was rejected by a vote of 25 to 15.

Mr. Wilson moved at 4 o'clock to go into executive session, as there was no prospect of a vote on the bill. The motion was adopted, and after Executive session the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE. Mr. Stevens from the committee on Ways and Means, reported a bill to increase in revenue and for other purposes, which was made the special order for Thursday next.

Mr. Thomas, of Maryland, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill supplemental to the law relating to the War Department and authorizing the settlement of certain claims against the United States. The House went into Committee of Whole on the State of the Union, and proceeded to the consideration of the bill to reimburse the State of Pennsylvania for calling out the militia for repelling invasion, and appropriating $700,000 for that purpose. Mr. Fernando Wood moved an amendment, se as to reimburse New York, which should be placed on au (qual footing with Pennsylvania or any other State. Mr. Regers wanted to include New Jersey.

A RETIRED STATESMAN'S IDEA OF HAPPI-NESS.-Some officious person was recently condoling with Guizot for not having been elected, like his confrere, Thiers, to a seat in the French Chambers. The worn-out statesman gave a resume of his experience, which ompletely silenced all commiseration: To be happy, you must have enough good sense and not too much wit-no public obligation acquired by place or preferment—no private responsibility incurred by family ties—a fortune, small but independent—a house in the country, old books with new binding, a wide hearth and a good log fire.

Such is the summary of happiness discovered by the once powerful and ponderous eld roser, now evidently become the most fin ished and perfect of egotists. During the year 1863, there were twenty

Mr. Wilson reported from the Judiciary Committee a bill changing the places of holding the Circuit and District Courts of Tennessee. Passed.

Mr. Wilson also reports a bill defining the jurisdiction of the Court of Claims. The bill is to restrain the court from acting on claims for property destroyed or appropriated by the military or naval authorities during the war, reserving these matters to Congress. New York, Jan. 12. The Tribune's Morris Island correspondent says that the rebels have in Charleston two says that the rebels have in Charleston two iron-clad steamers, imitations of the iron-clads. Charleston takes fire and burns from the effect of bombardment. On Sunday last they burned eight houses. In one mass of obstructions hauled away from the beach of Morris Island are sixteen bars of iron rails. The obstructions having been removed by natural causes, nothing now prevents the taking of Charleston when the Admiral wills it.

In a postscript the correspondent adds that the rebels have three iron-clads building at Charleston, two of them on the Dunderburg

They agreed to raise a Committee on Emancipation, to whom all papers on the subject will pation, to whom all papers on the subject will be referred.

McDougal's resolutions, declaring war with McDougai's resolutions, declaring war with France in certain contingencies, will sleep their last sleep in the Senate.

It is said that Secretary Chase contemplates the issue of 10-40 bonds when the present series of 5-20's are exhausted; and in order to meet the demands upon him for the payment states he will resort to a learn of veteran bounties, he will resort to a loan interest bonds. New York, Jan. 12. The Times' Washington correspondent says at least five Major Generals and over twenty Brigadiers will be restored to civil life by consent of the Senate. Gen. Meade, though absent, is in constant communication with the Army of the Poto mac, and commands by telegraph.

The Herald's Folly Island correspondent says Col. Bell's experiments to obviate the explosion of Greek-fire shells till the proper moment have succeeded.

It is not improbable that a persistent bom-bardment of Charleston will soon be renewed No one doubts our ability to destroy the city whenever we desire.

The gunboat Huron has captured an Angle rebel schooner from Nassau, loaded with salt in Dabery Sound, Georgia.

Admiral Farragut, and carrying two and three rifled guns each, will sail in a few days.
